

Republican War on Labor.

The fight in Pennsylvania, like the fight in Idaho, has become a struggle for the very life of unionism. The organized operators, with the ready aid of armed troops, have determined to destroy organized labor.

Mr. McKinley has not yet been called in to help the coal trust as he helped and is still helping the Standard Oil trust with United States soldiers in Idaho, but this is only because the Pennsylvania militia, in complete and absolute control of the Republican party, is deemed powerful enough to cope with the situation. If United States troops were needed Mr. McKinley would not hesitate to furnish them at the call of the trusts.

There is no pretense that monopoly is not fully organized. It acts as one man in raising prices, in limiting production, in forcing down wages, in extorting high prices from the unhappy employees in the "pluck me" stores and in making war on every attempt of labor to organize for its own protection. And the Republican State of Pennsylvania maintains a great armed force to back up the coal trust in its oppressions, extortions and aggressions and to shoot the poor laborers who, writhing under injustice and the sting of poverty, seek some means of redress.

Organized labor in general may well keep the Pennsylvania situation in full view. Monopoly has been encouraged by the Idaho incident and it will hesitate less and less to resort to armed force furnished by a complaisant Republican President or Governor in destroying unionism. Government by injunction has proven a strong bulwark of the trust in the past; but government by bayonets has its obvious advantages.

And government by bayonet for the benefit of the coal trust is what a Republican governor has ordered in the anthracite and field to-day.

Thirteen Reasons.

Here are a few of the reasons why the "plain people" are not inclined to meekly accept the inspired statements of the trusts organs and speakers, showing what a natural necessity and beneficent institution the trust is:

It requires 50 per cent. more wheat to buy a stove than it did in 1896.

It requires twenty bushels more corn to buy a wagon than it did in 1896.

It requires 100 per cent. more corn or wheat to buy a copper kettle than in 1896.

It requires twice as much corn to buy a coil of rope as in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent. more grain to buy a plow, a rake or a shovel than in 1896.

A set of common wheels that cost $7 in 1896, now cost $12.

The price of cultivators and other farm implements has gone up proportionately.

Galvanized barbed wire cost $4 to $4.50 per hundred more than in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent. more corn or cotton to buy a pound of sugar than in 1896.

You have to pay 40 per cent. more for glass than in 1896.

Freight rates have climbed back to the exorbitant prices which caused a popular revolt in legislation a few years ago.

The prices of oil, coal, lumber, tools and hardware have gone up from 40 to 100 per cent.

And all these things have been done by the trusts.

A trust robs you waking or sleeping, eating or drinking, working or playing, living or dying, and the coffin trust gets you in the end.

Judge W. F. Hall, the Democratic nominee to succeed Judge Hazelrigg on the Appellate Bench is a young man of 42 years, who is said to resemble Wm. Goebel more closely than his own brothers. He has proven himself to be the most popular Democrat in Harlan and adjoining counties, having been elected Circuit Judge once in a district with 3,600 Republican majority and coming with 280 votes of re-election in 1896. Outside of these counties the appellate district is Democratic and Judge Hall's election over O'Rear is confidently claimed by the mountain Democrats, who are united and enthusiastic.

Obituaries.

Departed this life on 23rd September, at her home on Green river Adair county, Mrs. Ruth Campbell, wife of Z. T. Campbell. The deceased was loved and admired by all who had her acquaintance, for her many virtues. "Rutha" was almost idolized because she tried to make all whom she met happy. She was kind and benevolent to every body, and many tears are shed for the great loss sustained by her death. The deceased leaves a husband, two children, father, mother and many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. May her pure heart be received by the great Father in Heaven, is the prayer of her cousin.

Pearl.

On Tuesday Sept. 4th, God, in his infinite wisdom, saw fit to call from this earthly kingdom Henry W. Smith, of Russell county. He was born in Adair county Sept. 29th, 1816, making him nearly 84 years of age. The funeral service was held at Friendship church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, after which the remains were laid to rest in the family burial ground. The deceased was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mary S. Austin. To the union were born ten children, five of whom are still living. His first wife died Feb. 13th 1881, and his second wife was Mrs. Martha Blair, who preceded him to the grave only a few months. He became a member of the Baptist church at the age of sixteen, and lived a faithful and active member till his death. He died as he lived, a true Christian, loved by all, and ever ready to lend a helping hand in any department of church work. His daily walks in life were such that he by his influence built for himself a living monument. He has now entered upon that rest for which he sighed. We cannot call him back and we would not if we could. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Oh, that we may so live as to meet him in that better World, with other loved ones gone before, where there is no more parting, sickness, or death.

Docia Wade.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by M. Cravens.

Unpleasant things about people any more. It is not in good taste. You talked about them frankly when talking unpleasant, was only a question of ethics. Now you won't dare.

Why experiment on yourself with remedies of doubtful utility when you can get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which has stood the test of time? Twenty-five years' sale and use have proven that remedy to be a prompt and certain cure for colds. It will cure a cold in a day if taken as soon as the cold has been contracted and before it has settled in the system. Sold by M. Cravens.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by M. Cravens.

A mother sent her small boy into the country, and after a week of anxiety, received this letter: "I got here all right, but forgot to write before. A feller and I went out in a boat and the boat tipped over and a man got me out. I was so full of water that I didn't know anything for a long time. The other boy has to be buried after they find him. His mother came and cried all the time. A horse kicked me over and I've got to have some money for fixin' my head. We are going to set a barn on fire to-night and I should smile if we don't have some bully fun. I shall bring home a 'name wood chuck if I can get him in my trunk.—Ex.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public. For sale by M. Cravens.

An exchange thus gives its home undertaker a boost: "One of the pleasantest sights we have had in this town for a long time was the artistic manner in which John Griffin buried Bill Kruger, who died since our last issue. Mr. Griffin has his trade at his finger's end, and he handled our dead citizen with an ability that was startling in its originality. He was everywhere at once, weeping with the bereaved widow, discussing crop prospects with the farmers and soliciting business at the funeral. He will doubtless be able to get all the business in these parts. Before leaving for home he subscribed for this great weekly, paying one year in advance."

Eat What You Like.

When you take Morley's Liver and Kidney Cordial, for then, dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, foul breath, dizziness, and the long train of similar troubles will disappear and your cleansed and awakened system will demand food. Sound digestion and sound appetite go together, and both follow the use of this time-tried remedy. Sold by W. M. Bell, Jopka, Ky.

Hon. David Bennett Hill outlines the difference between the Republican and Democratic party as follows: "One party favors large standing armies, immense public expenditures, a government of grandeur and magnificence, high protective tariffs, a British colonial policy, great combinations of corporate government. The other party favors a continuance of the plain and simple government of our fathers, public expenditures limited to the actual necessities of the government, tariff taxation for public purposes only, an army for defense and not for conquest, competition in business free from monopolistic combinations.

Stung by a Centipede.

Mrs. Thos. Saunders, Bluffton, S. C., was stung by a centipede. A doctor was sent for, but before he arrived some sensible friend wet a piece of brown paper with Morley's Wonderful Eight and applied it to the wound. The doctor said his services were not needed, for the poison was neutralized or killed by the Wonderful Eight. Mrs. S. did not suffer from the wound. Free trial bottles at W. M. Bell's, Jopka.

Miss Annie Curd, aged seventeen, was found lying in a pool of blood at her home in Graves county, with a bullet wound in her breast. There is suspicion of foul play and the case is being investigated.

Another's Testimonial

Influences J. M. Beecher to Use

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

J. M. BEECHER, Sr. of Belleville, Mo., has this to say of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. "I desire to inform you that the great benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is such that I may influence some other that this was influenced from reading, as I testified. My early symptoms were about six years ago, when I at first felt shortness of breath and later, sharp shooting pains about my heart, etc. I frequently consulted my family physician, but his prescriptions gave me no relief. My trouble grew worse as it became older until I was unable to get a good night's rest, and frequently I would have to get up and go to the window for air. To get any sleep I was compelled to prop my head and shoulders up so that I could breathe. I began using Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and experienced relief from the beginning. I continued for some time and it fully restored my health. That was three years ago." "Heart disease, unchecked, never grows better of itself. Its course is from bad to worse. The first symptoms are usually ignored with the thought, 'I don't think I can have heart trouble,' and the timely opportunity is neglected and the case becomes serious. Thousands of weak hearts are liable, at any moment, on the least over-exertion to fail and the victims snatch their friends by their sudden and untimely deaths.

ONE person in every four has a weak or diseased heart. Medical statistics have fully established this fact, and while all cases do not develop into a dangerous condition, a majority of them cause much trouble and in case of illness from other sources, heart weakness materially retards, if it does not entirely prevent recovery, while a strong, well-developed system convalesces best friend.

Shortness of breath, weak and hunched figure, going up and down stairs, and other extra exertion, are all symptoms of the heart, etc., and symptoms of heart weakness.

Hon. W. H. Bassett, for twenty years judge of the county court at Tuscola, Ill., writes: "About two years ago I experienced trouble with my heart, having severe pains in my left side, resulting from a severe spell of erysipelas. I began using Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and continued until I had taken six bottles and believe it has cured me, as I have had no trouble since. It is surely an excellent remedy and I do not hesitate to recommend it as I believe it will relieve any case of heart trouble."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit or the money will be refunded. Book on the heart and nerves sent free by the Dr. Miles Medical Co. Elkhart, Ind.
